

VOLUNTEER SERVICES

Allen Nichols, Executive Vice Chairman

Military Appreciation

Volunteers serve as point people for NOGC in support of military centric community events. During tournament week, committee members support military appreciation events.

Volunteer Communications

Opportunities for volunteers to provide ideas and help write articles for the Tournament Talk monthly newsletter and daily newsletter during Tournament week. Volunteers also work to post information on various social media accounts and blogs to engage and encourage volunteers.

Uniforms

Distributes volunteer credentials and uniforms prior to event. Sells merchandise and additional uniform items during tournament week and works closely with tournament office on all merchandise distributed to volunteers. Scheduled Wednesday through Sunday in 4-6 hour shifts during tournament week. Assist with uniform packaging and 2 uniform distributions prior to tournament.

Volunteer Events

Volunteers work to plan volunteer recognition events and activities throughout the year and during tournament week.